

Community information sessions

The training team at the Office of the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner liaises with not-for-profit community organisations, community groups, unions and other interested individuals to provide a 1-hour FREE information session.

Online information sessions

We are available to do online, live and interactive information sessions for Community Groups, using Zoom / Ms Teams. Participants require access to a desktop or laptop computer with good internet connection.

Face to face information sessions

Community information sessions, workshops and engagement forums aim to promote non-discriminatory practices and empower groups who are more likely to experience discrimination and harassment.

Sessions can be designed to focus on a range of human rights issues, affecting:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- People with disabilities
- Culturally and Linguistically Diverse groups / communities
- LGBTIQ+ groups / communities
- Young people
- Older people
- Gender

For further information or to organise a session please contact the training team on (03) 6165 7515, or visit the www.antidiscrimination.tas.gov.au or email training@equalopportunity.tas.gov.au
